Age 7 payments – update

CTF bulletin 34 told you about age 7 payments and when they would be notified on schedules.

Originally, we expected the first age 7 payments to be notified to providers on schedules in response to fortnightly returns to 15 September 2009. Providers may have seen one or two age 7 payments notified on these schedules, but a number of providers have contacted us to say they have not received any such notifications.

We have discovered that our batch processing timetables have delayed notifications being issued. Providers can now expect age 7 payments to begin to be routinely notified on schedules in response to fortnightly returns to 30 September 2009. We are sorry for any inconvenience caused.
