[MAIN

Part 1 General

1 Citation, commencement and effect

(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications) Regulations 2002 and shall come into force on 12th August 2002.

(2) These Regulations have effect in relation to claims for a tax credit for periods of award beginning on or after 6th April 2003.

2 Interpretation

In these Regulations—

“the Act” means the Tax Credits Act 2002;

[“appropriate office” means [any]6 office specified in writing by the Board.]3

[“armed forces independence payment” means armed forces independence payment under the Armed Forces and Reserve Forces (Compensation Scheme) Order 2011;]5

“the Board” means the Commissioners of Inland Revenue;

[“couple” has the meaning given by section 3(5A) of the Act;]2

“disability element” shall be construed in accordance with section 11(4) of the Act;

“joint claim” has the meaning given by section 3(8) of the Act;

[“personal independence payment” means personal independence payment under Part 4 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012;]4

[“relevant authority” means—

- (a) the Board;
- (b) the Secretary of State or the Department for Social Development in Northern Ireland; or
- (c) a person providing services to the Board, the Secretary of State or that Department in connection with tax credits;]1

“severe disability element” has the meaning in regulation 17 of the Working Tax Credit Regulations;

“single claim” has the meaning given by section 3(8) of the Act;

“tax year” means a period beginning on 6th April in one year and ending with 5th April in the next;

“the Working Tax Credit Regulations” means the Working Tax Credit (Entitlement and Maximum Rate) Regulations 2002.

Modifications—

Tax Credits (Polygamous Marriages) Regulations, SI 2003/742 regs 39, 40 (definition of “joint claim” substituted, and definition of “polygamous unit” inserted, for the purposes of polygamous marriages).

Amendments—

- 1 Definition of “relevant authority” inserted by the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications and Payments by the Board) (Amendment) Regulations, SI 2003/723 regs 2, 3(1) with effect from 6 April 2003.
- 2 Definition of “couple” inserted, and definitions of “married couple” and “unmarried couple” revoked, by the Civil Partnership Act 2004 (Tax Credits, etc) (Consequential Amendments) Order, SI 2005/2919 art 5(1), (2) with effect from 5 December 2005.
- 3 Definition of “appropriate office” substituted by the Tax Credits (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations, SI 2009/697 regs 11, 12 with effect from 6 April 2009.
- 4 Definition of “personal independence payment” inserted by the Personal Independence Payment (Supplementary Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Regulations, SI 2013/388 reg 31(1), (2) with effect from 8 April 2013.

- 6 In definition of “appropriate office”, word substituted by the Tax Credits and Childcare (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations, SI 2018/365 reg 3 with effect from 6 April 2018.

3 Use of electronic communications to make claims or to give notices or notifications

(1) In these Regulations “writing” includes writing produced by electronic communications that are approved by directions issued by or on behalf of the Board.

(2) If a claim which is required by these Regulations to be made to [a relevant authority at an appropriate office]1 is made in writing produced by electronic communications, it shall be treated for the purposes of these Regulations as having been made to, and received by, [a relevant authority at an appropriate office]¹ on the date on which it is recorded on an official computer system.

(3) If a notice or notification which is required by these Regulations to be given to [a relevant authority at an appropriate office]¹ is given in writing produced by electronic communications, it shall be treated for the purposes of these Regulations as having been given to, and received by, [a relevant authority at an appropriate office]¹ on the date on which it is recorded on an official computer system.

(4) In this regulation—

- (a) “electronic communications” has the meaning given by section 132(10) of the Finance Act 1999;
- (b) “official computer system” means a computer system maintained by or on behalf of the Board to—
 - (i) send or receive information, or
 - (ii) process or store information.

Amendments—

- 1 Words substituted by the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications and Payments by the Board) (Amendment) Regulations, SI 2003/723 regs 2, 3(2)(a) with effect from 6 April 2003.

Part 2 Claims

4 Interpretation of this Part

In this Part (and Part 3) “the relevant date”, in relation to a claim for a tax credit, means—

- (a) in cases where regulation 6 applies, the date on which the claim would be treated as being made by that regulation disregarding [regulations 7, 7A and 8]³;
- (b) in cases where sub-paragraph [(d)]² of regulation 11(3) applies, the date on which the claim would be treated as being made by that sub-paragraph disregarding [regulations 7, 7A and 8]³;
- (c) in any other case, the date on which the claim is received by [a relevant authority at an appropriate office]¹.

Modifications—

Universal Credit (Transitional Provisions) Regulations, SI 2013/386 reg 17(1), (2), Schedule paras 33, 34 (modification of this regulation in respect of awards of universal credit and terminations of awards of tax credit in the same year).

Universal Credit (Transitional Provisions) Regulations, SI 2014/1626 reg 4 (modification of this regulation in respect of awards of universal credit and terminations of awards of tax credit in the same year).

Amendments—

- 1 Words substituted by the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications and Payments by the Board) (Amendment) Regulations, SI 2003/723 regs 2, 3(2)(b) with effect from 6 April 2003.
- 2 In para (b), reference substituted by the Tax Credits (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations, SI 2009/697 regs 11, 13 with effect from 6 April 2009.

3 In paras (a), (b), words substituted by the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications) (Amendment) Regulations, SI 2015/669 reg 3 with effect from 6 April 2015.

5 Manner in which claims to be made

- (1) This regulation prescribes the manner in which a claim for a tax credit is to be made.
- (2) A claim must be made to [a relevant authority at an appropriate office]¹—
 - (a) in writing on a form approved or authorised by the Board for the purpose of the claim, or
 - [(b) in such other manner as the Board may decide having regard to all the circumstances.]²
- (3) A claim must contain the information requested on the form (or such of that information as the Board may accept as sufficient in the circumstances of the particular case).
- (4) In particular, a claim must include in respect of every person by whom the claim is made—
 - (a) a statement of the person's national insurance number and information or evidence establishing that that number has been allocated to the person; or
 - (b) information or evidence enabling the national insurance number that has been allocated to the person to be ascertained; or
 - (c) an application for a national insurance number to be allocated to the person which is accompanied by information or evidence enabling such a number to be so allocated.

This paragraph is subject to [paragraphs (6) and (8)]³.

(5) “National insurance number” means the national insurance number allocated within the meaning of regulation 9 of the Social Security (Crediting and Treatment of Contributions, and National Insurance Numbers) Regulations 2001.

(6) Paragraph (4) does not apply if the Board are satisfied that the person or persons by whom the claim was made had a reasonable excuse for making a claim which did not comply with the requirements of that paragraph.

(7) At any time after a claim has been made but before the Board have given notice of their decision under section 14(1) of the Act in relation to the claim, the person or persons by whom the claim was made may amend the claim by giving notice orally or in writing to [a relevant authority at an appropriate office]¹.

[(8) Paragraph (4) does not apply to any person who is subject to immigration control within the meaning set out in section 115(9)(a) of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 and to whom a national insurance number has not been allocated.]³

TCTM6102 (if a claim contains insufficient information, it is rejected and a new claim must be made, but there is discretion to accept a claim that contains sufficient information to proceed. If a claim is accepted, and further information is sought in order to reach an initial decision, the original claim is a valid claim.)

TCTM6107 (amendments to claims permitted under reg 5(7) above are unlikely to be very common in view of the short time between receiving a claim and the initial award notice being sent out; they may mostly occur where a claim has been delayed due to pre-payment checking).

TCTM6110 (provision and verification of national insurance number which is required when making a claim).

Amendments—

- 1 Words substituted by the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications and Payments by the Board) (Amendment) Regulations, SI 2003/723 regs 2, 3(2)(c) with effect from 6 April 2003.
- 2 Para (2)(b) substituted by the Tax Credits (Miscellaneous Amendments) (No 2) Regulations, SI 2008/2169 regs 11, 12 with effect from 1 September 2008.
- 3 In para (4), words substituted, and para (8) inserted, by the Tax Credits (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations, SI 2009/697 regs 11, 14 with effect from 6 April 2009.

6 Amended claims

(1) In the circumstances prescribed by paragraph (2) a claim for a tax credit which has been amended shall be treated as having been made as amended and, subject to [regulations 7, 7A and 8]2, as having been made on the date prescribed by paragraph (3).

(2) The circumstances prescribed by this paragraph are where a person has amended or persons have amended the claim in accordance with regulation 5(7).

(3) The date prescribed by this paragraph is the date on which the claim being amended was received by [a relevant authority at an appropriate office]1.

Amendments—

- 1 Words substituted by the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications and Payments by the Board) (Amendment) Regulations, SI 2003/723 regs 2, 3(2)(d) with effect from 6 April 2003.
- 2 In para (1), words substituted by the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications) (Amendment) Regulations, SI 2015/669 reg 3 with effect from 6 April 2015.

7 Time limit for claims (if otherwise entitled to tax credit up to [[31] days] earlier)

(1) In the circumstances prescribed by paragraph (2) a claim for a tax credit received by [a relevant authority at an appropriate office]1 shall be treated as having been made on the date prescribed by paragraph (3).

(2) The circumstances prescribed by this paragraph are those where the person or persons by whom the claim is made would (if a claim had been made) have been entitled to the tax credit either—

- (a) on the date falling [[31]3 days]2 before the relevant date (or on 6 April 2003, if later); or
- (b) at any later time in the period beginning on the date in sub-paragraph (a) and ending on the relevant date.

(3) The date prescribed by this paragraph is the earliest date falling within the terms of paragraph (2)(a) or (b) when the person or the persons by whom the claim is made would (if a claim had been made) have become entitled to the tax credit.

(1) Subject to [paragraphs (2A) to (4)]², regulation 7 does not apply where the claim for a tax credit made by a person or persons is received by a relevant authority at an appropriate office during an entitlement period where the person making the claim, or in the case of joint claimants either person, has for that entitlement period made a valid declaration of eligibility under section 4(2) of the Childcare Payments Act 2014 (declarations of eligibility).

(2) Subject to [paragraphs (2A) to (4)]², where a claim for tax credits is received by a relevant authority at an appropriate office during the period of 31 days beginning with the last day of the entitlement period for which the person making the claim or, in the case of joint claimants either person, has made a valid declaration of eligibility under section 4(2) of the Childcare Payments Act 2014, regulation 7 shall apply but the date prescribed by paragraph (3) of regulation 7 may be no earlier than the day following the last day of that entitlement period

[(2A) Where—

- (a) a claim for a tax credit is received by a relevant authority at an appropriate office and the person making the claim, or in the case of joint claimants either person, has made a valid declaration of eligibility under section 4(2) of the Childcare Payments Act 2014,
- (b) no payments under section 20(1)(a) of the Childcare Payments Act 2014 have been made out of any childcare account held by the person making the claim, or in the case of joint claimants either person, and
- (c) all the childcare accounts held by the person making the claim for tax credits, or in the case of joint claimants both persons, have been closed, regulation 7 shall apply .]²

(3) For the purposes of this regulation, the “appropriate date” is the date on which—

- (a) Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs makes an account restriction order in accordance with section 24 of the Childcare Payments Act 2014 (imposing restrictions on childcare accounts) for the purposes of giving effect to a determination made under section 18(2) of that Act (cases where there is more than one eligible person) and regulations made thereunder,
- (b) a childcare account is closed in accordance with regulations made under section

25 of the Childcare Payments Act 2014 (closure of childcare accounts), or

- (c) a child ceases to be a “qualifying child” for the purposes of the Childcare Payments Act 2014 as defined in regulation 5 of the Childcare Payments (Eligibility) Regulations 2015 except in the case where they cease to be a “disabled child” as defined in regulation 5(5) of those Regulations.

(4) Where a claim for tax credits is received by a relevant authority at an appropriate office—

- (a) during an entitlement period relating to a childcare account where the person making the claim, or in the case of joint claimants either person, has for that entitlement period made a valid declaration of eligibility under section 4(2) of the Childcare Payments Act 2014, or
- (b) during the period of 31 days beginning with the day following the last day of that entitlement period, regulation 7 shall apply but the date prescribed in paragraph (3) of regulation 7 may be no earlier than the appropriate date.

(5) For the purposes of this regulation, the terms “childcare account” and “entitlement period” have the same meanings as they have for the purposes of the Childcare Payments Act 2014 and regulations made thereunder.¹

Amendments—

- 1 Regulation 7A inserted by the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications) (Amendment) Regulations, SI 2015/669 reg 2 with effect from 6 April 2015.
- 2 In paras (1), (2), words substituted for words “paragraphs (3) and (4)”, and para (2A) inserted, by the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications) (Amendment) Regulations, SI 2017/597 reg 2 with effect from 17 May 2017.

8 [Date of claims—disability element of working tax credit

(1) In the circumstances prescribed by paragraph (2), the claim referred to in paragraph (2)(a) shall be treated as having been made on the date prescribed by paragraph (3).

(2) The circumstances prescribed by this paragraph are where—

- (a) a claim for working tax credit including the disability element (“the tax credits claim”) is made by a person or persons (“the claimants”) which results in the Board making an award of working tax credit including the disability element;
- (b) the claim is made within [[31]3 days]² of the date that a claim for any of the benefits referred to in regulation 9(2) to (8) of the Working Tax Credit Regulations (“the benefits claim”) is determined in favour of the claimants (or one of them); and
- (c) the claimants would (subject to making a claim) have been entitled to working tax credit if (and only if) they had satisfied the requirements of regulation 9(1)(c) of the Working Tax Credit Regulations, on any day in the period—
 - (i) beginning on the date of the benefits claim, and
 - (ii) ending on the date of the tax credits claim.

- (3) The date prescribed by this paragraph is—
- (a) the first date in respect of which the benefit claimed is payable; or
 - (b) if later, the date falling [[31]3 days]² before the claim for the benefit is made; or
 - (c) if later, the first day identified under paragraph (2)(c).]¹

Amendments—

- 1 Reg 8 substituted by the Tax Credits (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations, SI 2009/697 regs 11, 15 with effect from 6 April 2009.
- 2 In paras (2)(b), (3)(b), words substituted by the Tax Credits (Miscellaneous Amendments) (No 2) Regulations, SI 2009/2887 reg 8(1), (2)(c) with effect from 21 November 2009.
- 3 In paras (2)(b), (3)(b), number substituted by the Tax Credits (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations, SI 2012/848 regs 1(3), 5(1), (2)(c), (d) with effect from 6 April 2012.

9 Advance claims before the year begins

- (1) In the circumstances prescribed by paragraph (2) a claim for a tax credit may be made for a period after the relevant date.
- (2) The circumstances prescribed by this paragraph are where a tax credit is claimed for a tax year by making a claim before the tax year begins.
- (3) This regulation shall cease to have effect in relation to the tax year beginning on 6 April 2004 and subsequent tax years

10 Advance claims—working tax credit

- (1) In the circumstances prescribed by paragraph (2) a claim for a tax credit may be made for a period after the relevant date.
- (2) The circumstances prescribed by this paragraph are where—
- (a) the tax credit in question is working tax credit; and
 - (b) the case falls within sub-paragraph (b) of the First Condition in regulation 4(1) of the Working Tax Credit Regulations (person who has accepted an offer of work which is expected to commence within 7 days).
- (3) In the circumstances prescribed by paragraph (2)—
- (a) an award on a claim for tax credit may be made subject to the condition that the requirements for entitlement are satisfied no later than the date prescribed by paragraph (4); and
 - (b) if those requirements are satisfied no later than that date, the claim shall be treated as being made on the date on which they are satisfied.

Modifications—

Universal Credit (Transitional Provisions) Regulations, SI 2013/386 reg 17(1), (2), Schedule paras 33, 35 (modification of this regulation in respect of awards of universal credit and terminations of awards of tax credit in the same year).

- (4) The date prescribed by this paragraph is the date falling seven days after the relevant date.

11 Circumstances in which claims to be treated as made—notices containing provision under section 17(2)(a), (4)(a) or (6)(a) of the Act

(1) In the circumstances prescribed by paragraph (2) a claim for a tax credit is to be treated as made.

(2) The circumstances prescribed by this paragraph are where (in the case where there has been a previous single claim) a person has or (in the case where there has been a previous joint claim) [either person or]⁴ both persons have made a declaration in response to provision included in a notice under section 17 of the Act by virtue of—

- (a) subsection (2)(a) of that section;
- (b) subsection (4)(a) of that section;
- (c) subsection (6)(a) of that section; or
- (d) any combination of those subsections.

The declaration made shall (subject to regulation 5(3)) be treated as a claim for tax credit by that person or persons for the tax year following that to which the notice relates.

[(3) The claim shall be treated as made—

- (a) in a case where the declaration is made by [the date specified on the section 17 notice]⁴ on 6th April [following the period to which the section 17 notice relates]⁴;
 - (aa) ...⁴
- (b) in a case where the declaration, not having been made by [the date specified on the section 17 notice]⁴, is made within 30 days following the date on the notice to the claimant that payments of tax credit under section 24(4) of the Act have ceased due to the claimant's failure to make the declaration, [on 6th April ...⁴ following [the period to which the section 17 notice relates]⁴]³;
- (c) in a case where the declaration, not having been made by [the date specified on the section 17 notice]⁴ or within the 30 days specified in sub-paragraph (b), is made before [31st January in the tax year following the period to which the section 17 notice relates]⁴, and, in the opinion of the Board, the claimant had good cause for not making the declaration as mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) or (b), [on 6th April following the period to which the section 17 notice relates]⁴;
or
- (d) in any other case, on the latest date on which the declaration is received by a relevant authority at an appropriate office (subject to the application of [regulations 7 and 7A]⁵).]²

[(4) Paragraph (3) does not apply—

- (a) in the case where there has been a previous single claim (to which the notice referred to in paragraph (2) relates) if the person by whom it was made could no longer make a single claim; ...⁴
- (b) in the case where there has been a previous joint claim (to which the notice referred to in paragraph (2) relates) if the persons by whom it was made could no longer make a joint claim.]¹ [or

- (c) in the case where the response to the notice referred to in paragraph (2) specifies that such response is not to be treated as a new claim for the tax year beginning 6th April following the period to which the section 17 notice relates.]⁴

- 5 In para (3)(d), words substituted by the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications) (Amendment) Regulations, SI 2015/669 reg 4 with effect from 6 April 2015.

12 Circumstances in which claims to be treated as made—notices containing provision under section 17(2)(b), (4)(b) and (6)(b) of the Act

(1) In either of the circumstances prescribed by paragraphs (2) and (4) a claim for a tax credit is to be treated as made.

(2) The circumstances prescribed by this paragraph are where a person is or persons are treated as having made a declaration in response to provision included in a notice under section 17 of the Act by virtue of—

- (a) subsection (2)(b) of that section, and
- (b) subsection (4)(b) of that section, or a combination of those subsections and subsection (6)(b) of that section.

(3) The declaration referred to in paragraph (2) shall (subject to regulation 5(3)) be treated as a claim by that person or persons for tax credit for the tax year following that to which the notice relates.

(4) The circumstances prescribed by this paragraph are where a person or any of the persons has—

- (a) made a statement under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 17 of the Act in response to such a notice by the date specified for the purposes of that subsection, or
- (b) made a statement under paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of that section in response to such a notice by the date specified for the purposes of that subsection, or a combination of any of those subsections and subsection (6)(b) of that section.

(5) The notice referred to in paragraph (4), together with (and as corrected by) the statement or statements there referred to, shall (subject to regulation 5(3)) be treated as a claim for tax credit by that person or persons for the tax year following that to which the notice relates.

(6) The claim shall be treated as made on the 6 April preceding the dates specified in the notice for the purposes of subsections (2) or (4) of section 17 of the Act.

(7) [Paragraphs (3) and (5) shall not apply]²

(a) in the case where there has been a previous single claim (to which the notice relates), the person by whom it was made could no longer make a single claim; ...¹

(b) in the case where there has been a previous joint claim (to which the notice relates), the persons by whom it was made could no longer jointly make a joint claim; ...²

[(c) in the case where, before the specified date, the person or persons to whom a notice under section 17 of the Act is given advise the Board that the person or persons do not wish to be treated as making a claim for tax credit for the tax year following that to which the notice relates; or]²

[(d) in the case where there has been a previous single claim to which a notice under section 17 of the Act relates—

(i) a relevant notification is given to the person by whom the claim was made; and

(ii) the person fails to make a relevant request; and

(e) in the case where there has been a previous joint claim to which a notice under section 17 of the Act relates—

(i) a relevant notification is given to the persons by whom the claim was made; and

(ii) they fail to make a relevant request.]²

[(8) In this regulation—

(a) “relevant notification” means a written notification to a person or persons by whom a claim for tax credit was made which—

(i) is given by the Board at least 35 days before the Board gives notice under section 17 of the Act to the person or persons;

(ii) states the date on which it is given;

(iii) advises that the Board intends to give such a notice to the person or persons; and

- (iv) advises that this regulation will not have effect to treat the person or persons as making a claim for tax credit for the tax year following that to which the notice relates unless a relevant request is made;
- (b) “relevant request” means a request made to the Board by a person or persons to whom a relevant notification is given that—
 - (i) is made in response to the relevant notification within 30 days of the date on which it is given; and
 - (ii) requests that the person or persons will be treated by virtue of this regulation as making a claim for tax credit for the tax year following that to which the notice relates;
- (c) “specified date” means the date specified for the purposes of section 17(2) and (4) of the Act or, where different dates are specified, the later of them.]2

14 Circumstances in which awards to be conditional and claims treated as made—decisions under section 14(1) of the Act made before 6 April 2003

(1) In the circumstances prescribed by paragraph (2) an award on a claim for a tax credit may be made subject to the condition that the requirements for entitlement are satisfied on 6 April 2003.

(2) The circumstances prescribed by this paragraph are those where—

- (a) an advance claim (under regulation 9) for a tax credit has been made for the tax year beginning on 6 April 2003; and
- (b) the Board give notice of their decision under section 14(1) of the Act before that date.

(3) Where, in a case falling within the terms of paragraph (2),—

- (a) notification is given before 6 April 2003 of a change of circumstances (other than one increasing the maximum rate at which a person or persons may be entitled to a tax credit) which is expected to continue at that date, or
- (b) the Board have reasonable grounds before that date for believing that the requirements for entitlement are otherwise expected to differ on that date from those in the claim, the person or persons making the claim shall be treated as making a new claim (on the basis of the altered requirements for entitlement, together with so much of those requirements stated in the original claim as remain unchanged) in the place of the original claim.

15 Persons who die after making a claim

(1) This regulation applies where any person who has made a claim for a tax credit dies—

- (a) before the Board have made a decision in relation to that claim under section 14(1) of the Act;
- (b) having given a notification of a change of circumstances increasing the maximum rate at which a person or persons may be entitled to the tax credit, before the Board have made a decision whether (and, if so, how) to amend the award of tax credit made to him or them; or
- (c) where the tax credit has been awarded for the whole or part of a tax year, after the end of that tax year but before the Board have made a decision in relation to the award under section 18(1), (5), (6) or (9) of the Act.

(2) In the case of a single claim, the personal representatives of the person who has died may proceed with the claim in the name of that person.

(3) In the case of a joint claim where only one of the persons by whom the claim was made has died, the other person with whom the claim was made may proceed with the claim in the name of the person who has died as well as in his own name.

(4) In the case of a joint claim where both the persons by whom the claim was made have died, the personal representatives of the last of them to die may proceed with the claim in the name of both persons who have died.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (4), where persons have died in circumstances rendering it uncertain which of them survived the other—

(a) their deaths shall be presumed to have occurred in order of seniority; and

(b) the younger shall be treated as having survived the elder.
