2 Service of notices or documents

Where, by any provision of these Regulations—

- (a) any notice or other document is required to be given or sent ...1 to the Board, that notice or document shall be treated as having been so given or sent on the day that it is received ...1 by the Board, and
- (b) any notice or other document is required to be given or sent to any person other than ...1 the Board, that notice or document shall, if sent to that person's last known address, be treated as having been given or sent on the day that it was posted.

Amendments—

- 1 In sub-para (a), (b), words revoked by the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Order, SI 2008/2683 art 6(1), Sch 1 paras 204, 206 with effect from 3 November 2008.

Part 2 General Appeal Matters

3 Other persons with a right of appeal or a right to make an application for a direction

For the purposes of section 12(2) of the Act (as applied and modified by the Appeals Regulations), where—

- (a) a person has made a claim for a tax credit but is unable for the time being to make an appeal against a decision in respect of that tax credit; or
- (b) a person is the person in respect of whom an enquiry has been initiated under section 19(1) of the 2002 Act, but is unable for the time being to make an application for a direction, the following other persons have a right of appeal to [the First-tier Tribunal]² or a right to make an application for a direction—

- (i) a receiver appointed by the Court of Protection with power to make a claim for a tax credit on behalf of the person;
- (ii) in Scotland, a [judicial factor, or guardian acting or appointed under the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000 who has power to claim, or as the case may be, receive a tax credit on his behalf]¹ who is administering the estate of the person;
- (iii) a person appointed under regulation 33(1) of the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987 (persons unable to act);
- (iv) where there is no person mentioned in sub-paragraph (iii) in relation to the person who is unable to act, a person who has applied in writing to the Board to be appointed to act on behalf of the person who is unable to act and, if a natural person, is aged 18 years or more and who has been so appointed by the Board for the purposes of this sub-paragraph.

Amendments—

- 1 Words substituted by the Social Security, Child Support and Tax Credits (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations, SI 2005/337 reg 4(1), (2) with effect from 18 March 2005.
- 2 Words substituted by the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Order, SI 2008/2683 art 6(1), Sch 1 paras 204, 207 with effect from 3 November 2008.

4 Time within which an appeal is to be brought

- (1) Where a dispute arises as to whether an appeal was brought within the time limit specified in section 39(1) of the 2002 Act, the dispute shall be referred to, and be determined by, [the First-tier Tribunal]¹.
- (2) The time limit specified in section 39(1) of the 2002 Act may be extended in accordance with regulation 5.

Amendments—

- 1 Words substituted by the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Order, SI 2008/2683 art 6(1), Sch 1 paras 204, 208 with effect from 3 November 2008.

5 Late appeals

- (1) [The Board may treat a late appeal as made in time]¹ where the conditions specified in paragraphs [(4)]¹ to (8) are satisfied, but no appeal shall in any event be brought more than one year after the expiration of the last day for appealing under section 39(1) of the 2002 Act.

(2), (3) ...¹

[(4) An appeal may be treated as made in time if the Board is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice.]¹

- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (4) it is not in the interests of justice to [treat the appeal as made in time unless the Board are]¹ satisfied that—

- (a) the special circumstances specified in paragraph (6) are relevant ...¹; or
- (b) some other special circumstances exist which are wholly exceptional and relevant ...1,

and as a result of those special circumstances, it was not practicable for the appeal to be made within the time limit specified in section 39(1) of the 2002 Act.

- (6) For the purposes of paragraph (5)(a), the special circumstances are that—
- (a) the applicant or a partner or dependant of the applicant has died or suffered serious illness;
 - (b) the [appellant]¹ is not resident in the United Kingdom; or
 - (c) normal postal services were disrupted.
- (7) In determining whether it is in the interests of justice to [treat the appeal as made in time]¹, regard shall be had to the principle that the greater the amount of time that has elapsed between the expiration of the time within which the appeal is to be brought under section 39(1) of the 2002 Act and the [submission of the notice of appeal, the more compelling should be the special circumstances.]¹
- (8) In determining whether it is in the interests of justice to [treat the appeal as made in time]¹, no account shall be taken of the following—
- (a) that the applicant or any person acting for him was unaware of or misunderstood the law applicable to his case (including ignorance or misunderstanding of the time limit imposed by section 39(1) of the 2002 Act); or
 - (b) that [the Upper Tribunal]¹ or a court has taken a different view of the law from that previously understood and applied.
