Check your tax credits award notice

This checklist is for you to use to help make sure that the information on your award notice about your personal circumstances is correct and complete. Do not send it to us.

The questions apply to you and your partner if you have one. If anything is wrong, missing or incomplete you must tell us within 1 month of receiving your award notice or you could be asked to repay an overpayment.

If the award period ended on or before 5 April 2009, check your circumstances as they were on the date the period ended. Otherwise, check your circumstances as they are now.

If reduced payments mean you are not able to meet essential living expenses such as rent, gas or electricity bills, contact us.

Have your payments gone down?
We may have adjusted your payments to avoid paying you too much this year, or to collect back an overpayment from an earlier year. If we do this, we may limit the amount we collect to avoid causing you financial hardship. Our Code of Practice 26 What happens if we’ve paid you too much tax credit? tells you how and when we do, or do not, collect overpayments. You can get a copy by phoning us, or online at www.hmrc.gov.uk/leaflets/cop26.pdf

Please contact us if:
• you do not understand why your payments have reduced, or
• an overpayment is shown on the award notice and you think you should not have to pay it back because you met your responsibilities but we did not meet ours, or
• the reduction in your payments means that you cannot meet your essential living expenses, such as rent, gas or electricity bills. We may be able to make extra payments.

Other changes to tell us about
You do not have to tell us about the following changes, but it is in your interest to do so because they may increase the amount of tax credits you are due.

Changes you must tell us about

You must tell us about the following changes within 1 month. You must tell us if you claimed:
• as an individual but you are now married or in a civil partnership or living with someone as if you are
• as part of a couple but you have separated or your partner has died.

Childcare costs
If you claimed childcare costs, you must tell us if:
• your costs stop or go down by £10 a week or more
• you no longer use a registered or approved provider, or
• you start using a relative to look after your child at home.

Please phone us for advice.

Leaving the United Kingdom (UK)
You must tell us if you, or your partner if you have one:
• leave the UK permanently
• go abroad for a temporary absence of more than 8 weeks (or for more than 12 weeks if you go abroad because you are ill, or because someone in your family is ill or has died)
• lose your right to reside in the UK.

Working hours
You must tell us if you:
• stop working altogether
• are laid off
• are working at least 16 hours a week and your hours drop below 16 or reduce to nil
• are working 30 hours or more a week and your hours drop below 30 or reduce to nil. For couples with children, it is your joint working hours that count towards the 30 hours
• have been on strike for more than 10 days.

Children and young people
You must tell us if a child or young person:
• moves out to live with someone else or dies
• starts to claim Income Support, Incapacity Benefit, income-based Jobseeker’s Allowance, Employment and Support Allowance, Child Tax Credit or Working Tax Credit in their own right.

You must also tell us if a young person between 16 and 20:
• leaves full-time education or approved training
• starts advanced education, for example a degree course
• starts training provided under a contract of employment
• starts paid work (usually for more than 24 hours a week).

Are you receiving Housing Benefit or Council Tax Benefit?
Your tax credits payments are taken into account when working out these benefits. Contact your Housing Benefit or Council Tax Benefit office each time you are sent an award notice so they can reassess your benefit.

Appeals
If you simply want to tell us that something on your notice is wrong or missing, just contact us and we will sort it out without the need for a formal appeal. You will still have the same appeal rights if you do this. Formal appeals must be made in writing within 30 days of the date of the award notice.
