Schedules following filing period 1 March 2011 to 5 March 2011

In order to make a number of delayed additional payments before the end of the current tax year there will be a short delay in the availability of schedules and payments, following the filing period 1 March 2011 to 5 March 2011.

We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause and will issue another bulletin shortly letting you know when you can begin to retrieve schedules.

Providers may notice an increased volume in additional payments notified on these schedules. Once these payments have been made, some compensation payments - typically for £12.50 will be notified to providers on fortnightly schedules. These should be claimed and credited to CTF accounts in the normal manner.
